State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, the Internet is a powerful tool that opens a world of education, entertainment and communication for the citizens of Idaho; and

WHEREAS, as with any tool, children must be instructed how to use it safely; and

WHEREAS, a recent study from the University of New Hampshire showed that one in five young people who use the Internet received an online sexual solicitation in a one-year period; and

WHEREAS, the Internet Keep Safe Coalition has brought together first spouses, law enforcement officials, businesses and educators from across the country to teach Internet safety to children; and

WHEREAS, Faux Paw the Techno Cat is visiting Idaho to "Take a Byte out of Internet Crime" by helping children learn to navigate the Internet safely through the three important rules: Keep. Don't Meet. Tell.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DIRK KEMPTHORNE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim August 29th 2005, to be in Idaho, and in doing so encourage all children to learn and follow the rules of Internet safety.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this twenty-second day of August in the year of our Lord two-thousand and five and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred thirtieth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred sixteenth.
